LIMMUDIM

...A WINTER / SPRING OF LEARNING

An Unrecognized Trauma?
Holocaust Survivors and Israeli Psychiatry
Dr. Rakefet Zalashik

Thursday February 14 • 7:00pm • Calgary JCC

Dr. Zalashik received her PhD in history from Tel Aviv University with a dissertation on the development of psychiatry in Palestine and Israel, 1892-1960. Dr. Zalashik's work focuses on Israeli identity formation, immigrant absorption and the integration of Holocaust survivors into Israeli society.

This program is co-sponsored by the Israel Studies Program, University of Calgary.

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY
ISRAEL STUDIES

The Fourth Stage of the Arab-Israel Conflict
Dr. Alan Dowty

Monday March 18 • 7:00pm • Calgary JCC

Dr. Dowty is Professor Emeritus of Political Science at the University of Notre Dame. He is a leading expert on the Arab-Israeli conflict, and has held a number of prestigious academic appointments. The first holder of the Kahanoff Chair in Israeli Studies at the University of Calgary, Dr. Dowty is also a past-President of the Association of Israel Studies. Among his many publications, his book Israel / Palestine is a standard text for introductory courses on the conflict.

This program is co-sponsored by The Centre for Israel and Jewish Affairs.

THE CENTRE FOR ISRAEL & JEWISH AFFAIRS

Digging Through History
Dr. Richard A. Freund

Sunday May 5 • 7:00pm • Calgary JCC

Dr. Freund is Director of the Maurice Greenberg Center for Judaic Studies and Greenberg Professor of Jewish History at the University of Hartford. He has directed six archaeological projects in Israel and two projects in Europe on behalf of the University including: Bethsaida, Qumran, the Cave of Letters, Nazareth, Yavne, Har Karkom (Mount Sinai) as well as archaeological projects in Burgos, Spain and at the extermination camp at Sobibor, Poland. Dr. Freund is the author of six books on archaeology and two books on Jewish ethics and over one hundred scholarly articles. He has appeared in many television documentaries.

This program is co-sponsored by WorleyParsons Canada and is part of the JCC's Archeology Day.

WorleyParsons resources & energy

Tickets for each event are $5 per person. Students are free.
For more information contact Judy Shapiro at 403-444-3153 or jshapiro@jewishcalgary.org.

CALGARY JEWISH FEDERATION